(i) Oh ! God !
Let me dislike the craving for material pleasure,
Let my mind advance to Thee, closer and closer.
Let the soil of 'I' ness be toiled,
Let the crop of 'contentment' be soiled.
Dispel all the 'Illusions of duality' of mine,
Burning the wants within, let peace shine.
So powerful are the bonds of sensual pleasures,
Sever them and reveal me your treasures.
With incredible hope your devotee wails,
For his distressed 'Self' to get elevated.
(ii) On whose tongue, the name of God is,
There only dwells, celestial bliss.
Who realises the God, in one's eyes,
There only supreme ecstasy lies.
Whose ears are engaged in God's story,
Even God praises such a person's glory.
Those who chant the name of God with firm belief in the same,
The real devotee owes himself as a slave of them.
